The Great Unity Wild West Train Robbery
They are known to strike on a Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday

The would-be robbers have received word that the train will be carrying a large payroll. The point where they plan to rob the train is genius; they've chosen a remote spot between the Valley of Red Fields and the Ole Yella Road. As the train slows down to check its brakes ready to climb the mountain of Brent Knoll, the gang plan to do the Robbery. So be ware, keep your eyes peeked and your valuables close!
